

Job Description

Job Posting Announcement – Certified Special Education Teacher

About CITY Center for Collaborative Learning

CITY Center for Collaborative Learning designs, implements, and advances innovations in teaching and learning that transform the lives of young people and their educators. The Tucson-based nonprofit offers professional development and community engagement experiences for educators and education advocates, while leading three small secondary schools that serve as demonstration sites.

Special Education Teacher

We are seeking a certified special education teacher to support students with individualized education plans (IEPs) to ensure academic success in inclusive general education classrooms. The position will serve as an inclusion specialist, working school-wide to support students and teachers.

Management of Individual Education Plans (IEPs)

- Work with a team to manage a caseload of 20-25 students with IEPs
- Strategically plan, coordinate, and facilitate annual IEP team meetings with parent(s), student, and teachers for each student with an IEP to update progress and re-visit or revise student learning goals
- Provide ongoing professional development and accountability that ensures implementation of IEP goals, accommodations and modifications
- Use data informed processes to track student progress and for progress reporting
- Provide and oversee the implementation of specially designed instruction as outlined in IEP's
- Support all students in general education settings through co-planning, co-instructing, and co-assessing with general education teachers
- Collaborate with a team of Support Services
- Plan and teach students with and without IEPs in Study Skills elective class
- Embrace and integrate diversity, equity, and inclusionary practices

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree (or higher) required
- Special education teacher certification
- Experience teaching or working in a school, supporting student academic success
- Demonstrated success as a collaborative professional
- Strong work ethic
- Demonstrated ability to independently manage high-quality reports and compliance deadlines
