

FEBRUARY 29

EDCAMP TUCSON

8:30am – 12:30pm

Calling all Tucson teachers, school leaders, and community partners who are passionate about what they do and want to share ideas, questions, skills, and enthusiasm about teaching & learning with others... Join us on 2/29 for the biannual convening of Edcamp Tucson! As part of the Edcamp philosophy, participants will construct the agenda/program together in the morning - allowing us to maximize everyone's expertise & passion - and to create a dynamic learning environment that is responsive to real-time needs, interests, & collaborations. We are using the shorter format on the 29th starting with conference check-in and networking at 8:30am, opening moves and participant creation of agenda beginning at 9:00am, two work sessions, as well as, a tech smack-down in between, and and closing at the end. The event will take place in downtown Tucson at 37 and 47 East Pennington Street.
