

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING COMMUNITY SUMMER INSTITUTE

WHAT

A 5-DAY, IMMERSIVE PD EXPERIENCE USING THE SRI 'CRITICAL FRIENDSHIP' MODEL - THAT DEVELOPS THE HABITS AND SKILLS NEEDED TO FACILITATE & COACH TRANSFORMATIONAL LEARNING COMMUNITIES IN YOUR SCHOOLS & DISTRICTS.

WHEN

Mon-Fri, June 11-15, 2018
8:30am - 4:00pm

WHERE

CITY Center for Collaborative Learning
47 East Pennington St, Tucson, AZ 85701

CITY CENTER FOR COLLABORATIVE LEARNING

TEACHERS & SCHOOL LEADERS

5-DAY PLC FACILITATOR TRAINING

CITY Center for Collaborative Learning is an affiliate of the School Reform Initiative and uses the SRI 'critical friendship' model for its work with PLCs.

Areas of focus include protocols for collaboratively looking at student work and professional dilemmas, activities to build community and increase teacher collaboration, & an ongoing emphasis on equity and excellence for all students.

This training is for teachers who want to learn how to create transformational communities in your schools & district, as well as, for principals & other school leaders who want to hone their facilitation skills & lead their schools as powerful professional learning communities.

ADVANCE REGISTRATION

$600 ($500 per - group rate)
Register online at [plcsummerinstitute.
eventbrite.com](http://plcsummerinstitute.eventbrite.com)

CITYccl.org

June 11-15, 2018

This week-long training (8:30 am – 4:00 pm each day) gives participants the skills, tools, and experiences needed to launch and facilitate powerful professional learning communities (PLCs) in their schools and districts.

The PLC Summer Institute is an immersive, hands-on professional development experience. Participants develop the habits and skills they will need to facilitate and coach a transformational learning community based on the SRI critical friendship model. The SRI critical friendship model for professional learning communities can lead to transformational growth for the adult participants and have profound impact on student learning and school culture.

CITY Center for Collaborative Learning is affiliated with the School Reform Initiative and uses the SRI ‘critical friendship’ model for its work with PLCs. Areas of focus include protocols for collaboratively looking at student work and professional dilemmas, activities to build community and increase teacher collaboration, and an ongoing emphasis on equity and excellence for all students.

This institute is for teacher-leaders who are interested in facilitating a professional learning community of peers in their school and district, as well as, principals other school leaders who want to hone their facilitation skills and lead their schools and districts as professional learning communities. Download flyer.

Professional Learning Community ‘Summer Institute’ June 11-15, 2018

Helping educators transform their school into a powerful professional learning community that effectively serves all students is one of CITY Center for Collaborative Learning’s areas of expertise. We lead summer trainings and school-based workshops for teachers, principals, and other educational leaders focused on the SRI Critical Friendship model to develop teacher-led PLCs supported by school-wide PLC practices.

“This has been the most impactful P.D. experience of my career and I’m so grateful to have been able to attend.”

— Summer Institute Participant, 2017

“I found the Institute to be extremely useful and see many applications for use in my classroom and in my professional community, as well as. my personal growth.”

— Summer Institute Participant, 2017

