

A

Lida Maxwell is Associate Professor of Political Science and Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies at Boston University. She is the author of Insurgent Truth: Chelsea Manning and the Politics of Outsider Truth-Telling (Oxford UP, forthcoming fall 2019) and co-author of The Right to Have Rights (Verso, 2018), which inspired this series.

TO

Lida Maxwell will discuss Hannah Arendt's writings on the politics of love and rightlessness and ask, in the context of immigrant family separation, whether we should see love and family as human rights.
